

Letter from B. R. Safford to Mrs. George Kennan, March 26, 1901

1331 CONNECTICUT AVENUE, WASHINGTON, D. C. March 25, 1901. My dear Mrs. Kennan: —

Thank you ever so much for all the trouble you have taken in getting the flying machine books for Dr. Bell, from Beinn Bhreagh. You don't know how much he appreciated your kindness and interest.

If he wants "Science" looked over it can be done here, so we won't have to trouble you about that.

I received your letter, and have started to answer it several times. I fell down and hurt my finger so that I could not write very much, and that is the reason you have not heard from me before. I am awfully sorry you did not come to Washington this year; it is always such a pleasure to see you, aren't you coming down this spring?

Very sincerely, B.R.Dafford Mrs. George Kennan, Baddeck, N. S.
